To All of RHA's Respected Residents:

The Renton Housing Authority is currently managing a transition of its property management to a new professional partner, Allied Residential.

Allied Residential has a track record of providing professional, high-quality management of over 10,000 multifamily units across western Washington since 1987.

Well versed in the affordable housing industry, Allied Residential brings proven, as well as innovative approaches in property management to RHA and we are delighted to welcome them to our family.

We are also proud to say that not everything at RHA is new...

We will continue to be the RHA you know and trust, as most of our current team members will join our new partner and continue to be available to meet your needs with the exceptional service to which you've become accustomed.

So, enjoy the old friends and the new ones too, you deserve it!
